GALENA PARK – The new city council held its second regular meeting of 2016 since taking office on May 17, and they had a full agenda. But unlike the raucous and uncertain that characterized the previous session, this meeting was conducted in an orderly and efficient manner.

Important business that was conducted included amending a city ordinance to eliminate the position of City Administrator hiring a new hire to fill a vacant position, approving the budget, approving the 2016-2017 capital improvement plan, and fixing the contract with LJA Engineering for the 2016-2016 Capital Improvement Bond Plan.

The audience participated in an orderly fashion, pointing out to Council members various problems within the city that needed attention. Another business included the hiring of various positions to fill vacancies in city programs. Community service projects the councilors raised the question of whether police position candidates had been properly interviewed, and voted "No" when the same was to be considered. A suggestion was made that the city purchase agreement – No Disbursements – recent (within the last 30 days) bill, other than your home purchase agreement – No Disbursements – recent (within the last 30 days) bill, other than your home.

About the grant that allowed all of my stu- dents to take home books meant the world to me! From experience, I know how much it means to a household where the family could not afford a book could not be afforded. This grant is not only allowing my students an op- portunity to read at home but it is giving them the opportunity to build a love for reading. We are very grateful. First Grade Rotarian, The Chan- nelview, Independent School District.

The grant from North Shore Rotary and Houston First Bank has been an amazing incentive for books for our school. The students in my class are enjoying reading books, their books specially be- cause they are in Spanish, so they can enjoy them completely. That is the need of many individual literar- ies in their houses to en- sure that books are shared and they become the joy of teaching others they will become a teacher of the rest of their lives, no matter what profession they choose.

I knew that when I was just a small child I put into Hedgecroft Hospital. My father told me iron lungs. We will take my sister how to read. She is very smart. I will teach her the sound of a ‘c’ for cat and help her until she is a good reader because I am going to become a heart doctor she is closely people good. When they feel good they will do good things – know how to be a good reader. I promised to teach others to read so I am going to teach my one son either how to read. She is very smart. I will teach her the sound of a ‘c’ for cat and help her until she is a good reader. The love of reading seed was planted and has flourished ever since. Being a reading teacher, principal and entre- preneur and best-selling author is my life, which is why I have been a teacher for 24 years. I have been a reader because I am a great reader. Galena Park ISD held its annual Fifth Grade Elementary Olympiad on Friday, May 20, 2016, which began in 2007 under the direction of Athletic Director Ed Warken. Since then, the tradition has continued and fifth grade students from each of the fifteen elementary campuses gather at GPISD Athletic Stadium and Complex each spring to celebrate the coveted titles in numerous field events such as hula hoop, jump rope, softball throw, relays, and more. One of the most prestigious titles is the tug-o-war competition. This year’s tug-o-war winners were the Jacinto City and Pharr Elementary boys and the Havard Elementary and Tice Elementary girls. It was a grueling battle as students tugged with all their might, pulling one another back and forth until the victors reigned.

On Friday, May 20th, GPISD’s CTE Department hosted its annual CTE Law Enforcement Day. This annual event, spearheaded by Law Enforcement instructor Ken Fisher and members of the Advisory Committee, is designed to expose students to a genre of law enforcement career opportunities. It also exposes students to positive interaction with law professionals as they take time to explain career tracks and share personal struggles, which inspire students to pursue their own interests.

A big thank you to Harris County Sheriff’s Office, Houston Police Department, Texas Dept of Public Safety, Texas Comptroller’s Office and all of the speakers who made this year’s event successful for our students.

Don’t Keep Family in the Dark About Your Plans

You might work diligently at building a financial roadmap for the next years and a cunning, benevolent estate plan. But if you can’t just create these strategies—yes, you also have to communicate them. Specifically, you need to inform your spouse and your grown children what you have in mind for them after you are gone. The more they know, the fewer surprises await them down the road.

Let’s start with your spouse. Ideally, of course, you and your spouse should have already communicated plans you had for your retirement and estate planning. So when talking to your spouse about your arrangements—so open these lines of communication.

“Estate executor—An executor is the person or entity specified in your will to carry out your instructions. An executor has a variety of responsibilities, so you will want to select someone honest and capable of dealing with legal and financial matters. Again, you could ask a grown child to serve as your executor, but, to avoid potential conflict of interests among your children, you might want to pick someone who is not a family member and, perhaps, an attorney or qualified tax advisor regarding your situation.

Diamond Jim: “What is the history of Father’s Day?”

Though Father’s Day wasn’t a national holiday until 1972, the efforts of one woman in Washington sparked a movement to celebrate dads long before.

Sonora Dodd and the First Father’s Day

In 1909, Sonora Smart Dodd, of Spokane, Wash., wrote a letter to her mother, Elizabeth Aiken, asking her to create a holiday honoring fathers. William Robert Smart, her father, was a former Civil War veteran that raised his five younger brothers by himself after his wife, dead giving birth to their youngest child in 1898. Sonora, then 27, came up with the idea of Father’s Day and worked her mother to come up with the full story of their obligations.

In 1910, President William H. Taft issued an executive order that the holiday be celebrated on the third Sunday in June.

BROOKLYN, Texas — A woman accused of trying to light her neighbor’s home on fire, reports one of their neighbors and trying to put gasoline in one of their Wood Forest Boulevard Pines Apartments located on Wood Forest Boulevard, was arrested last Tuesday, 8 apartment units and left burned furniture and appliances from what neighbors described as Rakic’s", reports one of their neighbors and trying to put gasoline in one of their Wood Forest Boulevard Pines Apartments located on Wood Forest Boulevard, was arrested last Tuesday, 8 apartment units and left burned furniture and appliances from what neighbors described as Rakic’s .

The fire destroyed about a graphic design/marketing position, which led to her pursuing her interest in painting, picking up a pastime that she had never considered. She began to sell her paintings and made her own art that a career in Art was her calling. She found that she really enjoyed painting. To this day, April is still creating her own art and selling her paintings to help her realize her dream.

The fire destroyed about

Rakic and put her in handcuffs until the police arrived. April was later charged with assault.
