Credit by Examination offered

On Saturday, October 3, 2015, the Galena Park ISD School Board approved the Credit by Examination program. The program allows students to earn college credit for knowledge and skills they have already demonstrated. The program is designed to provide a convenient and cost-effective way for students to earn college credit.

In order to participate in the Credit by Examination program, students must have previously earned college credit or be currently enrolled in a college or university. Students must also meet the following requirements:

- Be enrolled in a Galena Park ISD School
- Have completed a minimum of one semester of college-level coursework
- Have a minimum GPA of 3.0

Students interested in participating in the Credit by Examination program should contact their school counselor for more information.

The program is open to all Galena Park ISD students and is available to students at all grade levels. Students who have completed college-level coursework at any accredited college or university may be eligible to earn college credit. Interested students should contact their school counselor for more information.

GALENA PARK ISD:

Congressman Gene Green visits High School seniors

On Wednesday, September 9, 2015, U.S. Congressman Gene Green visited the seniors of Galena Park and North Shore High Schools to talk about the importance of voting. The congressman introduced the students to the electoral process and encouraged them to participate in the democratic process. For those not registered, he encouraged them to register to vote and participate in the electoral process.

“By your civic duty to vote,” Green said. “You can help elect the next president of the United States this November.” After speaking to the students he answered questions, shook hands, and took photos with students and staff.

“Important to me is that our students feel like they have a voice in our government,” the congressman said. “Galena Park and North Shore High Schools are models for a successful educational process. Congressman Green is reinforcing the message that we teach to our students every day. We are a nation that is participatory.”

Lawmakers get input on jails, suicide prevention

AUSTIN — The July 13, 2015, death of Happy Land Bland, a woman arrested and jailed after a traffic stop in Waller County, has prompted meetings of Texas House and Senate committees to discuss how jail inmates, who in some instances have been found to have mental illnesses and on suicide prevention.

Under direction of Chairman Kerry Western, chair of the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee, on Sept. 22 lawmakers heard from a list of inmates and approved the emergency, for which inmates are grouped based on risk category and mental health condition, and how juveniles are trained.

SCREENINGS TO IDENTIFY DISABILITIES

CISD Special Education Department invites you to participate in its special education screenings to identify disabilities in an effort to identify every student with a disability who lives within the school boundaries. CISD is committed to providing excellence in education for all students, and the screenings are designed to help identify children who may qualify for the district’s special education programs. Eligible students with disabilities between the ages of 3 and 21 can be provided with services to ensure their success in school. These services and supports may be provided through Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act or through the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act. Special education services are also available making a team for eligible children who have a visual and/or auditory impairment.

If you know a child who may be eligible for special education services, please contact the CISD ISD Special Education office at 281-652-2200, Extension 1198. If this child already is a student in Crosby ISD, please contact the counselor at the child’s school. The counselor will be happy to assist you.

The special education personnel will coordinate efforts to evaluate the student and, if eligible, ensure that the student is provided with supports and services needed to benefit from instruction.

ASK THE EXPERT

“Is the ‘Diamond Is Forever’ slogan just much hype?”

Recently a somewhat controversial engagement ring smoked engagement rings have been in the news. However, say the experts, even though there is much hype, the diamond is not only beautiful but also a wise investment. Turns out, there’s some type of marketing behind the concept of buying a diamond as an engagement ring.

Many experts agree that buying a diamond is somewhat of a rite of passage, especially when it comes to engagement rings. However, it’s important to understand that the size or cost of a diamond does not necessarily reflect its value.

When choosing an engagement ring, it’s important to consider factors such as the diamond’s cut, clarity, color, and carat weight. These factors can significantly impact the price and quality of the diamond.

In addition to the diamond itself, the setting and band of the ring can also have a significant impact on its overall value. It’s important to choose a setting and band that complement the diamond and fit your personal style.

Finally, it’s important to keep in mind that the value of a diamond is not just determined by its size or cut. The rarity and demand for a diamond can also play a role in determining its value. In other words, a small diamond can be just as valuable as a large one, depending on its quality and rarity.

So, while it’s true that buying a diamond as an engagement ring can be a symbol of love and commitment, it’s important to remember that the value of a diamond is not just determined by its size or cut. Instead, it’s important to consider the diamond’s quality, rarity, and demand in determining its value.
